

Dream: True Prophets and Apostles Rising; The Church Revived

A little background may help as you read the following dream. My husband Joe, and I, have been in prophetic ministry together for 15 years. We have served in smaller groups, behind the scenes for many years. Prior to this, Joe has pastored several churches, evangelized all over, and has started up a charitable organization to house the homeless. Recently, the Lord has been speaking to us and calling us to the nations in an Apostolic type of work. But for the past 15 years, we have served in Prophetic ministry to the Body of Christ. We are a Prophet and Apostle kind of tag team for the Lord, married to each other and married to Him.

On the morning of June 19, 2015, I awoke at 4:11 am from a dramatic dream. Here is what I saw:

Our son had been with a group of other kids playing in a swimming pool. They were laughing and playing, having a party, without a care in the world. Suddenly I noticed a young girl, beautiful, with long blonde hair drift down to the bottom of the pool. She was lying flat on her back and seemed peacefully at rest. I thought "oh no, this girl has drowned!" Suddenly the party was over, but I was too distracted with the activity around me and forgot the young girl at the bottom of the pool.

Suddenly I was in front of a copier or printer, and I was printing out some pages of materials. It looked like sheet music, and at the same time I had a knowing that North Korea could see what I was doing. And the more I printed, the angrier they became. So I kept on printing, and they were enraged.

Next I am in a hallway, and walk by a room where two of my cousins were. The older cousin is born again and loves Jesus so much, the other is unsaved. My older cousin had been praising the Lord in song, but had stopped and was very downcast. So I stopped, and asked him, why are you so downcast? Why did you stop praising the Lord? He hung his head, and stammered a moment and finally admitted that he was in bondage to the sin of pornography. He was ashamed. I said hold on, I am going to go get Joe to help you through this. So I continued down the hallway, made a sharp left hand turn and found my husband Joe and took him to the room where my two cousins were. Now as we entered the room, I could see that my younger cousin was in the corner behind a jail door, completely locked into a cell, behind bars. My older cousin was freely roaming the room, and was distressed but became very happy to see us, and he and Joe began to speak. I left the room to go check on our son, and came into the pool area. Just then I looked over and saw this young girl still at the bottom. I was so alarmed and upset that I had forgotten her, I cried out "Jesus!" and reached my right hand toward her. Right then she raised her hand and took mine and I effortlessly raised her up and out of the pool alive! She coughed just a bit, and then smiled so big and was happy. She was perfectly intact, no brain damage, no crying or fussing, I was amazed! I said, "where have you been all this time?!" So I handed her off to her parents, and found myself in front of a TV set. There she was with her parents giving her testimony of how she had died but came back to life, and somehow my name was mentioned. At that moment, I caught a glimpse of a newspaper headline which stated "Sara, age 12, back from the dead," and my name was mentioned in that article too. Just then, my mother and father came bursting into the room, they were so angry, and aggressive. My mother's eyes were bulged out and upside down, and my dad was cold and mean. They grabbed a noose, and slipped it over my neck, and hoisted me into the air. I could feel the rope tighten around my neck, and I grabbed at it with my hands as I called out "Father, help me!" End of dream.

After getting over the shock of actually feeling that rope around my neck, I began to pray for the meaning. Here is the message hidden in the dream:

The Lord will once again use the True Prophets and Apostles to Revive His Church set Her in order! There will be a uniting of purpose between the Prophet and the Apostle to reform the Church and prepare Her for the Lord's return. The Lord will now call upon those who have been tending God's precious sheep in a very non-visible role. These are the Prophets and Apostles that have been in training for years, the ones who have faced down the lions and the bears that attempted to steal God's sheep and overcame him. The Prophets and Apostles who never wore a title, never received any recognition, nor any pay, but did the work of the Lord unceasingly. They have stood the test of time, and continued on in serving the Lord in the most difficult of personal circumstances. They have been attacked in their health, in their marriages, in their finances, and in their families, and they have prevailed by the word of their testimonies, the Blood of the Lamb, and loving not their lives even unto death. Knowing the Lord intimately and pleasing Him, and loving His Church, has become their only focus in life. Their hearts have been sorely tested, and their determination to endure and overcome has compelled them to keep going even in the midst of some of the toughest demonic wrestling matches ever known. These are the Prophets and Apostles that have been prepared for this hour, and are now being called up to Active Duty to revive the Church and bring her back to life once again!

The name Sara means royalty, the daughter of a King, the Church. The number 12 means Joined and United, Apostolic and Governmental. Sara's blonde hair speaks of a Holy Covenant and Covering, and the swimming pool is a spiritual place that once was a party, but has resulted in a backslidden and unresponsive Church. The Prophet and the Apostle will be married together to flow in unity and as one, to bring the final reformation and order to the Church, to set the captives free, to save the lost, to correct doctrinal error, and to bring the most incredible Revival forth that the earth has ever seen; manifesting signs and miracles, and raising the dead back to life. These Prophets and Apostles will work hand in hand to demonstrate the Kingdom of God as nations are readied for Christ's return.

Clearly, the Lord is speaking that these Glorious things will come in the midst of great persecution. Foreign nations representing Anti-Christ will become infuriated as they watch the God of Heaven worshipped and praised once again upon the earth. The powerless religious system, driven by satan himself (as represented by my mother and father), will once again persecute and attempt to silence the Prophets and Apostles as the Kingdom is advanced through signs and wonders. But they will stand, calling out to their Heavenly Father as they put their very lives in His hands.

So this is a call to the Prophets and Apostles that Father has been preparing for this very day and hour. There is no doubt, the cost is extreme. It will cost you your life, laid down at His feet, to be worthy to serve Him. But know this, there will never be another time in history like the days approaching, as the Church is revived and stands to her feet once again, fully aware of her identity in Christ Jesus, firmly seated in the heavens at His right hand, positioned for Glory, for victory, and for eternity. The rewards are astronomical.

The Captain of Our Salvation is bringing many sons (and daughters) to Glory in these days, and the True Prophets and Apostles will rise to the occasion, and together with the other five fold offices of the Church, they will prepare the Body of Christ worldwide. The Church will be spotless, blameless and without blemish. For Jesus himself said, the gates of hell shall not prevail against Her!

Ephesians 2:20 - Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone,

Ephesians 4:11-13 - And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ;

Revelation 11:15 - Then the seventh angel sounded: And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!"
