

WARFARE IN THE NIGHT - June 29, 2015

Last night when I went to bed, I knew the Lord was calling me to prayer. Many times, I am called to intercede between the hours of 12-3 am, so I knew it, I felt the pull. So as I relaxed and began to seek Father and press into His love and His heart to hear the direction for prayer, I noticed immediately something was "off" in the spirit. It was different than I have encountered before, but the result was like my spirit was being pulled in different directions, that's the best I can describe. I began to try to focus in, and thought that I was having trouble focusing my mind. After a while of struggling to get into that prayer groove, I suddenly had the sensation that someone shoved me off the top of a roller coaster and I felt my body swish downward, making me feel sick. I jumped up out of bed because I knew instantly I was being harassed by demonic spirits. By the way, I am sharing all of this for the sake of teaching.

As I jumped up and began to rebuke them, bind them and command them out of the house. I sensed they were not responding. Right then, the Lord reminded me that Joe and I had fallen into bed without anointing the doorposts of the house. We have been doing this daily, as well as unified prayer, but taking anointing oil and applying it to the doors of our home declaring the Blood of Jesus covers us and Psalm 91, and declaring that this house is the sanctified place of God, and no trespassers allowed. As I sensed the spiritual atmosphere, I knew these were not small "visitors," so I paused to hear what Holy Spirit was saying to me. He instructed me to call for angels. So I out loud called for ANGELS to come and remove these demons from our home...and I mean to tell you almost immediately it happened just like that! (finger snap) A wise prophetess once told me, the Lord had instructed her to call on Angels to deal with witchcraft spirits and astral-projected human spirits. And so they did, the atmosphere cleared immediately.

So this morning, we heard from others who were harassed in the night and here is what I want to say to everyone. DO NOT allow demonic activity in your home ... ever. The very moment you recognize something is at work, you get after it. We should never allow the enemy to have even an inch of room in our lives. Scripture teaches us that we have total authority over the enemy (Luke 10:19 among many others), but I have found many people do not understand that so they are harassed and just feel like victims of the enemy. Joe and I and this leadership team are committed to helping you grow and understand who you ARE in Christ. You are not a victim, you are not defeated, and your freedom from sickness, demonic oppression, or anything else the enemy wants to do has been purchased by Jesus at His victory and Resurrection. Do not ever stand there and take it, the enemy will bring it back to you time and time again and it will get worse and worse. The ONLY authority he has over you is what you give him. Very important to remember this. Scripture says give the devil NO PLACE. And now, more than ever, this is vitally important.

We are in a heightened place spiritually right now, so don't wait until tomorrow or next week to dig into this in prayer and scripture. Know your place in Jesus, you are seated in Heavenly places in Him, and the enemy is under your feet. The government and Kingdom of God is established, and we are to reign with Him right now, so do not delay! Anoint your doorposts with oil, pray through your home, declare the Word of God, over your property, over your family and children, over your workplaces, over everything that pertains to you. And CALL for the angels of God to come into service on your behalf. They are standing around waiting for your words to align with God's words so they can respond. We have to get our minds off of the SCOTUS thing, and everything else going on, and focus on what Father is doing right now in the Church, it is a marvelous thing, but it will require our full cooperation...no spiritual laziness allowed! OK, love you all, pray that this inspires you to take a stand like never before. Refuse to allow the enemy to buffet you. GREATER is HE that is in you than he that is in the world! Amen!!!
